

Discovering the Champagne region

This itinerary will enable you to discover Reims and Epernay, two fine cities that the people of the C

Reims was also the city where the Kings of France were crowned.

← Back to the interactive map

PARIS EST - REIMS

^o
0H45 by TGV

□ 8 trains per day*

Last Updated Monday, 05

December 2011 10:04

The city of Reims: the Coronation city of the Kings of France and the home of Champagne. Reims, the leading gastronomic destination in France, is eager to reveal its glorious history and introduce you to the prestigious world of the most famous and most celebrated of wines.

NOT TO BE MISSED

- 4 UNESCO listed monuments (Reims Cathedral, the Palais du Tau, the Cathedral Museum, St Rémi Abbey Museum)
- Museums (Beaux Arts, Reddition, the former Jesuit collegiate...)
- Place Royale (18th century)
- The Champagne estates (Pommery/ Moet & Chandon/ Mumm...)

France Rail Pass'partner:

- Restaurants: La Vigneraie, Brasserie Flo de Reims
- Tourist Office: Reims Tourist Office
- Museums and monuments: Palais du Tau

+ ALL OUR PARTNERS

—

—

REIMS - EPERNAY

[Ⓢ]
30 min by regional train

[Ⓢ]
□ *19 trains per day

Epernay is internationally recognised as the Champagne capital of the world. Epernay, the “flowering town”, has a rich history linked with the production and export of this marvellous and festive wine.

NOT TO BE MISSED

- Cellar tours
- Strolls through the flowering countryside

France Rail Pass'partner:

- Restaurants: La Cave à Champagne
- Wine Cellar and tasting session: Champagne Domi Moreau
- Accommodation: Interface B&B

+ ALL OUR PARTNERS

—
—

EPERNAY - PARIS EST

[Ⓞ]
1H20 by regional train

□ ^{12:30}
*11 trains per day

+ ALL OUR PARTNERS

* (2010 frequency)